Rotary has a constant influx of leadership as officers, at every level, change every year. Those pictured above are our leaders for 2017-18. We are fortunate in that we will have the opportunity to meet our RI President and his wife, Juliet Saturday, August 12, 2017 at The Strike-Out Hunger Dinner Honoring Ian H. S. Riseley. To meet RI President Riseley you'll need to attend the "Day after Strike-Out Hunger Night" at the Westin Hotel in Mt Laurel, NJ.

DG Thomas Fletcher, DGE Joanne M Ventura and ADG Roy Audette will also be there but in case you can't make "The Strike-Out Hunger Dinner," DG Thomas Fletcher, DGE Joanne M Ventura and ADG Roy Audette will be visiting our club at some time during a regular meeting this year. Check our website calendar for the date.

In the "Happy- Sad" category, the sad, Lauren Donovan is taking a leave of absence - "This email is to serve as my notice that i unfortunately need to take a leave of absence from Woodbury Rotary. My current employment does not allow me time to come to meetings or participate in events. I am willing to help in the Bingo by running the event the day of, ordering supplies and purchasing bags but I can not however help make sure tickets are sold and baskets are donated. If I should switch job locations I will be happy to come back active but at this time my work schedule does not allow this."

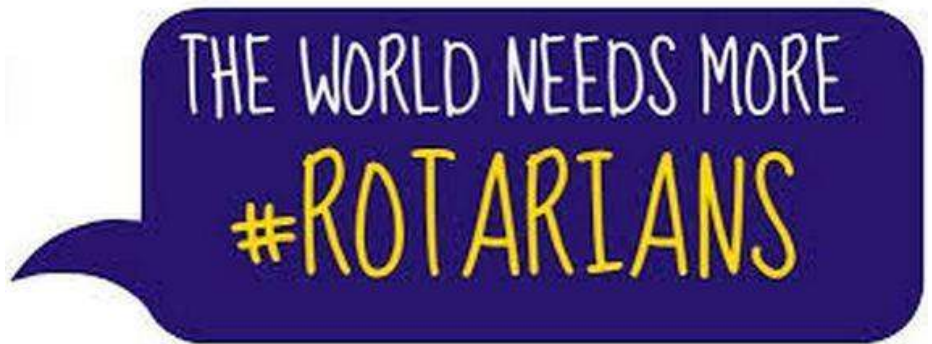

Second Elaine MaGee is taking a break from "The Christmas for Kids" chair - "I'm going to step down from Christmas for Kids this year. I'm taking on more kids to watch so really am not going to have the time needed to arrange this event."

We all know how important and also how demanding these two leadership positions are. Lauren and Elaine have contributed considerable efforts to achieve the success of these projects as well as enhancing the image of the Woodbury Rotary Club. Their absents from these positions will surely be missed.
